Amazing Apprenticeships is a leading organisation in the education sector, working with schools, colleges and employers, tackling misconceptions and promoting the benefits of apprenticeships and technical education. As experts on apprenticeships and technical education, we influence the way that apprenticeships are perceived and drive forward innovative and creative work in England and internationally, to ensure that more individuals and businesses can access the benefits of apprenticeships. We have already brought about a huge culture change amongst schools in the way that apprenticeships are perceived and promoted to students... but there is always more to do!

Training 2000

Our Apprenticeship Preparation Programme is aimed at giving 16- to 18-year-olds the opportunity to develop the skills they need to find and succeed onto an Apprenticeship or into employment.

Our training includes:

- A high-quality work experience placement with an employer that we will find for you.
- A guaranteed employer reference for your CV.
- Work preparation including practical training in our workshops.
- English and maths (if you need to improve your grades to apply for an Apprenticeship)

Our Apprenticeship Preparation Programmes have the aim of securing young people's progression to an Apprenticeship or sustainable job as quickly as possible.

The programmes are great for those who are looking for an alternative to college, those looking for a real-life experience not just classroom based or those who want to progress onto an Apprenticeship.

JOB OF THE WEEK

Medical herbalist

ANNUAL SALARY

Average UK salary in 2022
was £33,200

Medical herbalists use plants and herbal remedies to help improve their clients' health and wellbeing.

As part of your day-to-day duties, you may:

- Take a detailed history of the client's symptoms and lifestyle.
- Carry out a physical assessment and appropriate tests.
- Prescribe a relevant herbal remedy.
- Grow and prepare herbs in various forms, including capsules, extracts, ointments or infusions.
- Keep client notes.
- See clients for follow-up appointments.
- Refer clients to their GP where necessary.

What skills are required?

- Knowledge of biology.
- Sensitivity and understanding.
- Knowledge of psychology.
- Counselling skills including active listening and a non-judgemental approach.
- To be thorough and pay attention to detail.
- Thinking and reasoning skills.
- Excellent verbal communication skills.
- The ability to understand people's reactions.
- Knowledge of medicine and pharmacology.
- To be able to carry out basic tasks on a computer or hand-held device.

Career Path & Progression

With experience you could move into teaching or research.

For more information speak to a Career Adviser or your local colleges.

Working Environment.

You could work in a therapy clinic or at a client's home.

Working Hours

- ❖ 37 to 39 variable.
- ❖ You could work freelance / self-employed; managing your own hours.

You can get into this job through:

- a university course.

University

To prepare for work as a medical herbalist, you should complete a degree level course in herbal medicine approved by the National Institute of Medical Herbalists or one of the organisations represented by the European Herbal and Traditional Medicine Practitioners Association.

Courses last 3 years full time or 5 to 6 years part-time and include at least 500 hours of supervised clinical practice with patients.

If you're a trained medical practitioner like a doctor or nurse, you could take a postgraduate degree in herbal medicine.

Entry requirements

You'll usually need:

- 2 or 3 A levels, or equivalent, including biology for a degree.
- a degree in a relevant subject for postgraduate study.

Volunteering and work experience

You'll find it useful to arrange some work shadowing with a practising medical herbalist before you begin your studies.
